

Date	Time	Topic	Description
Tuesday March 21, 2017	5:30 to 9:30 PM	Intro to BACE and CBE Training	What is BACE-NMC & overview of 2016 CBE Training Course, including requirements for certification with BACE-NMC. Birth setting/providers
Tuesday March 28	5:30 to 9:30 PM	Getting Ready Teaching to adult learners, creating a safe space for learning	Teaching to adult learners involves specific skills and approach. This day will set the foundation of teaching interactively to different styles of adult learners
Tuesday April 4	5:30 to 9:30 PM	Session One Anatomy and physiology of pregnancy, labor & birth. Wellness in pregnancy. Warning Signs, Terminology Contractions	Each session, class 1-7 will give an in depth overview of the content, suggest a curriculum outline, and provide time for students to practice-teach a 10 minute segment.
Thursday April 20	5:30 to 9:30 PM	Session Two Hormones, Process of Labor and Delivery Preterm labor, signs of labor Early labor Support roles/Birth Team
Tuesday April 25	5:30 to 9:30 PM	Session Three Active/Transition Teaching comfort measures. Positions, movement, relaxation and breathing for labor.
Tuesday May 9	5:30 to 9:30 PM	Session Four BRAIN Challenging labors, post dates. Addressing back & prodromal labor. Teaching medications, anesthesia
Tuesday May 16	5:30 to 9:30 PM	Session Five Birth Plans Medical Interventions Second Stage Delivery of Placenta
Tuesday May 23	5:30 to 9:30 PM	Session Six Cesarean birth and unexpected outcomes. Communicating with healthcare provider Birth DVDs
Tuesday May 30	5:30 to 9:30 PM	Session Seven Postpartum and the Newborn Adjustment to parenting
Tuesday June 6	5:30 to 9:30 PM	Rain Date, Make up day, Extra session
Dates and times to be scheduled with individual students		Individual Curriculum Design	Students will work with the training team in designing their own individual curriculum, specific for the population they intend to teach.
Date and time to be determined		Breastfeeding for CBE & Doulas	Basics of breastfeeding will be covered.

